

David Ennis

CMEA/ACME Member-at-large, Website manager/coordinator

David taught public school in the Vancouver and Abbotsford, British Columbia, school districts for many years before accepting a position as a district educator (coordinator) for the Abbotsford School District. Professional experiences include teaching students grades 6 – 12 instrumental music with a focus on developing wind band, jazz and chamber ensemble programs. David is also a competent technology integration specialist and along with teaching music managed B.C.'s largest one-to-one laptop programs at the Secondary school level. Formal education includes a B.Mus. degree (1981) and a M. Sc. degree (1999). David has a history of volunteerism on behalf of music education including years of work with the Pacific Coast Music Festivals Association, B.C. Music Educators' Association and Coalition for Music Education in B.C.

David can be reached via email at ennismail@gmail.com or on SKYPE at david_ennis.