

David Gueulette is originally from Vancouver Island and holds a diploma in Jazz Studies from Malaspina University-College, as well as a Bachelor of Music in Education and a Master's Degree in Conducting from the University of Victoria. Before moving to Ottawa in 2004 to become Head of Music at Ashbury College, he was Director of Music at Shawnigan Lake School in Shawnigan Lake, BC for 10 years where he ran both the choral and instrumental programs. Outside of the classroom, he is a member of the organizing committee for the Capital Region MusicFest in Ottawa, acts as the room manager for the MusicFest Canada's Concert Band Division, and currently serves on the board of directors for the Ontario Music Educators' Association as editor for the electronic newsletter. He has also conducted several community ensembles, including the Nanaimo Concert Band in Nanaimo, BC, which is estimated to be the oldest community concert band in Canada.
