

Rebecca Brown

Rebecca teaches Choir, Dance, and Drama at Ecole Leila North Community School in Winnipeg where she has been for the past 6 years. At Leila North, she also directs two jazz choirs and co-directs/choreographs the school production every year. Before moving to Winnipeg, she taught middle years band at two schools in the Scarborough area of Toronto.

A voice major at Brandon University, Rebecca graduated from the concurrent Music Education program in 2002 with a major in choral music and a minor in drama. She is the past president of the Manitoba Music Educators Association, having been an integral part of the restructure in the province that increased their provincial membership from 185 to over 700 in just two years. She is thrilled to become a part of the CMEA as a member at large.

When she is not teaching, Rebecca is an avid tap and jazz dancer, sings with a local chamber choir, and plays flute in the Assiniboia Community Band.
